St Nicholas Hospice has been serving the 250,000 people of West Suffolk and Thetford since 1984.

They provide a comprehensive range of specialist palliative care services to people with life threatening illnesses and their partners, families and friends, both before and after a person's death.

The Hospice sees around 2000 people per year offering everything from 12 beds, Day Hospice, Community Nurses, Outpatient, Family Support and Bereavement Support. They see people at the Hospice and in their own homes, wherever they may be.

As a registered charity they provide all services entirely free to all those who need help and support.
